

ISPAH Congress 2022: External Scholarship Application Guidance

ISPAH are offering some Low- and Middle-Income Country Scholarships to attend our 2022 Congress in Abu Dhabi. Winners will be announced by the end of July 2022.

Am I eligible to apply?

To apply for our LMIC scholarships, you must be:

1. An ISPAH member, at any career stage (including students).
2. Living and working in and funded by an institution or organisation in a low- or middle-income country; or may be living and working in a high-income country but funded by an institution or organisation in a low- or middle-income country (as recognised by the World Bank).
3. Have submitted an abstract (symposium presentation, oral or poster) for the Congress. You will be asked to provide this in the application.

The application form includes the following sections you may want to pre-prepare before completing the application form:

- Abstract submission title
- Attached abstract submission
- Previous attendance of ISPAH Congresses
- Current research interests (<200 words)
- What difference would receiving the scholarship make to your research and/or career (<200 words)
- Anticipated costs for travelling to the Congress
- Provide the name and email address of a professional reference, e.g. manager, head of department, supervisor, senior colleague

Below includes some additional information on some of the fields required.

Anticipated costs

Please provide an overview of all of your anticipated costs with a total cost at the end. Ideally please convert this to U.S. Dollars. This can include any travel related costs including but not limited to flights, accommodation, subsistence, visa costs, childcare.

If you are only asking for a contribution to attend, please provide some information on how you are covering the rest of the fees.

How will the scholarship funds be granted?

If you are requesting funds for the congress registration, you will be given a voucher code to enter on the online registration system. With this in mind, please wait for the winners to be announced before paying for the congress registration.

For all other travel costs (flights, accommodation, subsistence, visa costs, childcare) you will be provided in advance of the conference funds to ensure the relevant travel arrangements can be made.
